Provided, That the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Tertenants of the Lands of any Accomptant within this Exception now deceased.

deceased, shall not be charged with, nor lyable unto any Accompt for the matters in this Exception mentioned: Except for such Sum or Sums of Money as Remain due upon any of their Accompts already Stated, and Determined, and are not yet paid in, and that no Accomptant as abovesaid, now living, shall be liable to make accompt of any Sum or Sums of Money, Paid, or disbursed, or otherwise Allowed, or Discharged, by Vertue, or Colour of any Order, or Ordinance of both or either House or Houses of Parliament, or any Convention, or Assembly called, or Reputed, or taking on them the name of a Parliament, or of Oliver Cromwel, pretended Protector, or of Richard his Son, while he continued, or was stiled, or obeyed as Protector, or by any persons acting as a Committee, appointed by the said two Houses, or either of them, or by any such Convention, or Assembly, or any Order, or Direction of such Committee or Committees, or any person or persons acting as a publique Council, though having no legal Authority so to do, or by their, or any their Order or Orders, or Direction.

It being further declared and Enacted, And is Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no person nor persons shall be charged for any Moneys by him received for the Fees, Salaries, and Wages then allowed, or for Moneys by him disbursed upon any publique use, or pretence, though the Direction, or Authority whereby the same Money was Issued, was not, or be not Legal and Warrantable in Law.

And be it further Provided, That no Military, or Commissioned Officer of the Armies, or Navies, or Souldier, or Marriner, who before the Twenty fifth of March, One thousand six hundred fifty nine, hath received any Moneys for his own pay, or the pay of other Souldiers, or for any other Contingencies of the Souldiers, or Garrisons under His Command, or by way of reward, shall be called to accompt therefore.

And that no person whatsoever shall be called to accompt for any the matters in this Exception mentioned, after the Four and twentieth day of June, which shall be in the year of our Lord God, One thousand six hundred sixty and two now next ensuing; And that in case any person who stands accomptable for any moneys received since the first of January, One thousand six hundred forty two, and before the Thirtieth of January, One thousand six hundred forty eight, have been robb'd, or plundered by Souldiers, or others, of the moneys in their hands, or of any Notes, or Books of receipt, or acquittances touching their payments or discharge, Then the oath or oaths of such Party or parties of the same respectively, shall be a good discharge for so much of their accompt. And that the Oath of every accomptant in or between the years, One thousand six hundred forty two, and One thousand six hundred forty eight, of what they have paid to any publique use, by, or according to any publique or pretended Order or Authority whatsoever, shall be a good discharge as to so much of the accompt of such person or persons. And except all First fruits and tenths in the hands of any Receiver not having disbursed, as in the last Exception is expressed.

Provided, That all and every Judgement of Discharge, or quietus est, had, or given at any time upon any accompt in the publique Exchequer, since the Year One thousand six hundred forty eight, be allowed, and shal not be avoided; except all accompts of the Revenues of Churches and Vicaridges in Wales, and the County of Monmouth, and all Judgements of discharge, or quietus thereupon obtained, and also Excepted out of this Pardon all offences of Bribery, Perjurys, and the Subornation of Perjury, or Witnesses and Offences of Forging or Counterfeiting any Deeds, Debentures, Bills of Publick Faith, Escripts, Wills, or other Writings whatsoever, or of any Examinations or Testimonies of any Witnesse or Witnesses, tending to bring any person or persons in danger of his Life, Liberty or Estate, and the giving the same in evidence, and the compelling or procuring of any such counterfeiting or forging to be had or made.

And also excepted all offences in detaining, imbezzling, or purloining any the Goods, Money, Chattels, or Jewels of the late King, Queen, or Prince, or any of the Children of the late King and Queen, other then Shipping, Stores, and Ammunitions of War, and other then such Goods and Chattels as have been sold or disposed of to any of the Servants or Creditors, of His late Majesty, in, or towards satisfaction of their debts or wages.

And also excepted out of this Pardon, all Issues, Fines, and Amercements, Rents, and other publick Duties being Levied, Received, or Collected by any Sheriff, under-Sheriff, Bayliff, Minister, or other Officer, to, or for the use of the late King, the Parliament, or the said Keepers of the Liberty of England, or any other Person aiding him-himself Protector, or for His Majesty that now is, and not accompted for, and discharged.

And also Excepted out of this Pardon, all and every offence and offences committed or done by any Jesuit, Seminary, or Romish Priest whatsoever, contrary to the Tenor or effect of the Statute made in the Seven and twentieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, Entituled, An Act against Jesuits, Seminaries, Priests, and other disobedient persons: or of any part thereof, and all Out-lawries, Proceedings, Judgements, and Executions for the same offences, or any of them.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawfull, to, and for all and every Clerk and other Officer of the Courts at Westminster, to award and make Writs of Capias Ultagatum, at the Suit of the Party Plaintiff, against such Persons Out-lawed, as be pardoned by this Act, to the intent to compel the Defendant, or Defendants, to make answer, to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, at whose Suit, he or they were Out-lawed; And that every person so Out-lawed shall Sue a Writ of Scire Facias, against the Party or Parties, at whose Suit he or they were so Out-lawed, before this Pardon in that behalf shall be allowed him or them so Out-lawed.

Provided, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid; That the said General Pardon shall not in any wise extend to pardon any Out-lawries upon any Writ of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, until such time as the party so Out-lawed shall satisfy, or otherwise agree with the party at whose suite the same person was so Out-lawed or Condemned.

And also Excepted out of this Pardon, all Informations and other proceedings Depending, concerning any Common High-ways or Bridges, and all Issues, returned upon any Procelle, concerning the same, since the Thirtieth day of January, One thousand six hundred forty eight; Except also all Recognizances, Obligations and other Securities, given or Entred into, Since the Five and twentieth of March, One thousand six hundred and forty, by any Receiver, Reeve, Bailiff, Collector, or other Accountant in the Court of the Publick Exchequer, and their Sureties and their Accounts Respectively.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted; That this Act, or any thing there therein Contained, shall not extend, or be Construed to pardon, or Discharge any Recognizance, Obligation or Bond, which is not yet forfeited.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Acts of Hostility and Injuries, whether between the late King and the Lords and Commons then in Parliament assembled, or between the people of this Nation, which did arise upon any Action, Assistance, Councel, or Advice, having Relation unto, or falling out by reason of the late Troubles, or in the late Wars, or publique Differences between the late King and Parliament, or between His now Majesty, or any of His Subjects, and which are not in this Act excepted; That the same and whatsoever hath ensued thereupon, whether trenching upon the Laws and Liberties of this Nation, or upon the Honor of His Majesty, or upon the Honor or Authority of the Parliament, or to the prejudice of any particular or private person, shall in no time, from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred and sixty, be called in question, whatsoever be the quality of the person, or of whatsoever kind or Degree, Civil or Criminal, the Injury is supposed to be; And that no mention be made thereof in time to come, in judgement, or judicial proceedings.

And to the intent and purpose that all Names and Terms of Distinction may be likewise put into utter Oblivion, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid; That if any person or persons, within the space of three years next ensuing, shall presume maliciously to call or Alledge of, or object against any other person or persons, any Name or Names, or other Words of reproach, any way tending to Revive the Memory of the late Differences, or the Occasions thereof; That then every such person, so as aforesaid Offending, shall Forfeit and Pay unto the party grieved, in Case such party Offending shall be of the Degree of a Gentleman or above, Ten pounds, and if under that Degree, the sum of Forty shillings; to be recovered by the party grieved, by Action of Debt, to be therefore brought in any of His Majesties Courts of Record, wherein no Essoign, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, or any more then one Imparance, so as the same Action be Commenced, or prosecuted within six Moneths next after the Offence Committed: And if the Jury sworn to try any Issue or Issues that shall be Joyned in such Action, shall find for the the Plaintiff, they shall likewise give to every such Plaintiff, Forty shillings Damages, over and above the penalty aforesaid.

Provided, always that this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not Extend, or give any Benefit unto any person or persons, who have had hand in the Plotting, Contriving, or Designing, the General Rebellion of Ireland mentioned in one Act passed in the first year of King Charles, Entituled, An Act for the speedy and effectual suppressing of the Rebels in His Majesties Kingdom of Ireland, to the better service, to His Majesty and Crown of England, Or in Aid- ing, or Abetting the same: (Other then such as by another Act intended hereafter to be passed, shall be therein Named, Mentioned, or expressed to be pardoned,) Nor to Envre to Refore to any person or persons, Bodies politick or Corporate, (other then the Marquesse of Ormond Lord Steward of His Majesties Household, and other the Protestants of Ireland,) And their Heirs, and such other person and persons, as in, and by an Act intended hereafter to be passed, shall be therein Named, Mentioned, or expressed in that behalf, any Estate, Liberties, Franchises, or Hereditaments in England, or Ireland, sold, or disposed of by both, or either Houses of Parliament, or any Convention assuming the Stile or Name of a Parliament, or any person or persons deriving Authority from them, or from them, or which was approved, or Confirmed by them, or from them; Nor to the Mean, profits, Rents, or Contingencies of Advantage of the same.

And it is further provided and enacted, That every person or persons, hereby pardoned, may plead the General Issue, without special pleading of this pardon, and give this Act of pardon in Evidence for his Discharge, and that the same shall be thereupon allowed, and the advantage thereof had as fully to all Intents and purposes, as if the same had been fully and well pleaded; And in such manner, as any Justice of the Peace, Constable, or other Officer, questioned for matters acted by them as Officers, or in execution of their Offices, may have advantage of the matter of their Justification, upon the General Issue by them pleaded, by the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom.

Provided also, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall extend or be interpreted to extend to pardon any person or persons what.
